

Volume 21, Number 4

Winter, 2011

Thank You Bill Raiford

Editor in Chief . . . Bill Raiford, '55, works to bring another edition of the Bugle to the CMA Alumni Association.

This publication of the Bugle marks the first such publication since 2001 in which Bill Raiford, '55, has not been the editor. Bill began serving as the editor of the Bugle, taking over from Jack Muth, '67, with the publication of the Spring 2001 Bugle. As the Bugle's second editor, Bill worked diligently to improve it with each edition, ever striving to accomplish the objective of supporting the CMA Alumni Association members' unity and heritage. Bill has taken pictures, written articles, collected input, edited submitted articles, developed inserts, researched newspapers, converted electrons, struggled with format, devoted untold hours, and probably spent more than a couple of dollars; all with one purpose... to provide members of the CMA Alumni Association with the best product he possibly could so we could all have a quarterly stroll down memory lane as we read the next edition of the Bugle.

In addition to "retiring" as editor of the Bugle, Bill is also handing over responsibility for the maintenance of the CMAAA Website. The web site is an offshoot of a program initiated when Robin Layton was President of the Alumni Association. That program was initially designed to introduce Maury County visitors to a visual history of CMA. Greg Thompson, '72, proposed the development of a Kiosk to present the CMA story and then developed the Kiosk that served the association with our initial Museum efforts in the War Memorial Building. Bill adapted that work and expanded it to become the CMA Website. He is directly responsible for the layout, content, and update of information on the website, to include maintaining the Directory database which is probably the most used portion of the website. Maintaining the website is another area where Bill has devoted significant time and energy so all alumni and friends of CMA can have ready access to CMA information.

Bill has been planning to execute these transitions for almost two years, but has patiently waited until the time was right. For those who attended the Saturday Night Dinner at the 2010 Reunion, you know that the Association presented Bill with a set of wooden CMA bookends that were especially John Chenault '52, is wondering if any of his classmates would like to have a "60th Reunion" get together during the CMA Grand Reunion this August. If so, please contact him at (859) 266-2407 or at (321) 639-3725 during January through March.

Anyone from the Class of '53 that is interested in a class get together during the 2012 Reunion weekend please contact Courtney Wilhoite at (870) 935-4818 (H) or (870) 974-3645 (C) or at vandyfan58@yahoo.com.

William O. Perry, '49, celebrated his 80th birthday with his wife, Sue Ann, in September. She planned a marvelous trip to Carmel, Monterey, and Santa Rosa, CA. Highlights were a visit to the Monterey Aquarium; visiting Safari West in Santa Rosa - 400 acres of wild animals with jeep tours and an overnight stay in their African Tent

Columbia Military Academy
Alumni Association
Board of Directors Meeting
October 8th, 2011
Academy Hall
Columbia Academy Campus
Columbia, TN

Attendees

Don Kimbrell—President '53, Mike Gilchrist—Vice President, '63, Robin Salze—Secretary, '66, Skip Snow—Treasurer '55, Becky Moon—Asst Treasurer '75, Jack Walker '45, Charles (Buz) Dooley '52, John Bass '53, Marshall Cranford '54, Bill Raiford '55, Tom Hayward '56, Hal Roe '57, Tom Walbert '58, John Hubbard '59, Ron Nall '61, Warren Miller '63, Don Noffsinger '63, Jim Borum '66, Douglas Townes '67, Bill Wade, 68, Randy Howell '72, Woody Pettigrew '73, Winston Elston '74, Robin Layton '74, Van McMinn '76, Jay Robins '76, Shayne Harris '78, and Buddy Fisher—Friend of the Board.

Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Don Kimbrell ('53). The Invocation was given by Randy Howell ('72). The Pledge of Allegiance was led by John Bass ('53).

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the minutes of the 9 April 2011 CMAAA Board of Directors meeting as published in the Spring 2011 Bugle.

Treasurer's Report

Becky Moon ('75), Assistant Treasurer, gave the Treasurer Report. There is $27,915.85 in the regular checking account. The Reunion cost is now higher than the Reunion income due to our not making any money on the food or drink at the Reception and Banquet. Becky suggested we consider raising fees and purchasing new souvenirs to enhance our income. There was extensive discussion about dues collection and how it can be improved. Bill Raiford ('55) will mail cards to all Alumni in an effort to enhance the dues collection. A motion was made, seconded and approved to accept the Treasurer's report.

Woody Pettigrew ('73) gave a report on the state of the Museum. The Museum currently has $18,463.54 in its account. The projected additional revenue is $20,045.00 and projected expenses are $28,950.00 resulting in a $9,558.54 surplus. Fundraising will continue as there may be unexpected expenses and to support the likely desire to execute the two five year lease options we have on the Museum.

Old Business

Woody Pettigrew withdrew his "50 for 50" proposal, which was presented to the Board during the past two Board Meetings and never acted on.

New Business

Woody Pettigrew reported that CA has partially restored the water fountain which was by the quadrangle and will let CMAAA have it to install in a location to be determined. Woody gave the Board several ideas for locations; an area in front of the Museum, the original location by the quadrangle, or in some area of the new CA Complex by the football field.

Woody Pettigrew reported that the names of the new Hall of Honor Members have been added to the memorial.

Bill Raiford ('55) asked for all members to assist in completing the list of CMA Alumni.

Don Kimbrell reported that the Embassy Suites has quoted us a price of $119.00 per room, up from $89.00 per room during the 2010 Reunion. They also will raise the Friday night reception by $5.00 per attendee. The Saturday night Banquet will remain the same cost. Embassy Suites room cost does include breakfast each morning and a manager's free reception every evening.

The Marriott has given us an offer of $89.00 per room. The Marriott does not have the first week-end August date available. They have the weekend of August 24, or the weekend of July 21.

There was a lengthy discussion concerning the details of what is available at each Hotel. Two major differences between the hotels is the nightly manager's reception which is available at the Embassy Suites and not at the Marriott and the free breakfast that is available at the Embassy Suites and not at the Marriott.

The Board agreed to not have a reserved room for the Friday night reception, but have a hospitality room for registration use and to conduct the Friday night reception in the large open area of the hotel with no special or'dourves or beverages, and at no cost to attendees .

The overall response was so positive to the Embassy Suites experience from the 2010 Reunion that the Board members agreed we would like to use the Embassy Suites again if a better rate could be negotiated .

A motion was made to have Don Kimbrell, Tom Walbert ('58) and Ron Nall ('61) approach The Embassy Suites and negotiate a lower rate if possible, and report back to the Board via email with our options with both hotels. The motion was seconded and passed.

A motion was made to amend the By Laws Reunion date requirement of the first week end in August due to the possibility of the date not being available. The motion was seconded and passed.

A motion was made to suspend the By Laws requirement regarding the first week end date in August instead of amending the By Laws. The motion was seconded and passed, which will supersede the prior motion.

Bill Wade ('68) discussed the pros and cons of the Reunion Golf Tournament. The board agreed to plan a golf outing in conjunction with the Reunion; participation level will determine if it will be set up as a tournament or just a time for interested alumni to gather and play a round of golf. Bill and Randy Howell will head up the effort.

There was a discussion of using a band or DJ for the Saturday night Banquet. Due to the significant cost of a band there was a consensus to use a DJ. Randy Howell reported that the DJ would be donated for the Banquet.

There was a discussion of having a silent auction or raffle to raise money during the reunion weekend. Board Members were asked to explore options and make recommendations at the next Board meeting.

Becky Moon stated that we must ensure we charge attendees enough to cover the cost of the Saturday night Banquet.

Winston Elston made a motion we use "Military Aviation" for The Reunion Theme. The motion was seconded and passed.

Randy Howell offered a closing prayer for dismissal and lunch.

Cabins; and seeing Charles Schulz's Museum highlighting his "Peanuts" cartoons (Santa Rosa). They stayed overnight at the East Brothers Light Station, an active Coast Guard Station that is a Bed and Breakfast on the weekends.

Update to Board Meeting Minutes - CMA Reunion 3-5 August 2012 -

No need to pencil it in...go ahead and mark your calendar with ink. The 2012 Grand Reunion will be conducted August 3rd - 5th and will be headquartered at the Embassy Suites-Nashville South location as it was in 2010. The positive feedback from the 2010 attendees and follow-on discussions with the Embassy Suites convinced the Board that a follow-on performance is warranted. Activities for the weekend include a reception Friday night, a visit to campus and an Alumni Association General Membership meeting Saturday morning, and a dinner and dance social at the Embassy Suites Saturday night. Also this year we will be having a golf outing in the local Franklin area Friday morning. Please see the article on this page for more information on the golf outing. This reunion will mark the 50th reunion anniversary for the Classes of 1962 and 1963 (please see the notice on page 1). More reunion details and the Registration Form will be included in the Spring edition of the Bugle.

Help the Association Save $$ on Bugle Mailing Cost

One of the major budget items for the CMA Alumni Association is the publication and mailing of the Quarterly Bugle Newsletter. Hard copy publication and mailing of the Bugle cost approximately $1200 per quarter, even more when we include inserts such as Reunion Registration forms.

In addition to the quarterly mail out, each publication of the Bugle is also posted on the CMA Alumni Association Website. In fact, all publications of the Bugle since the Spring 2001 edition are posted on the website and available for reading and downloading.

Computer savvy alumni can save the Alumni Association printing and postage dollars by downloading copies of the Bugle directly from the CMA Alumni Association Website at www.cmaaa.com instead of receiving a hard copy in the mail.

If you can help us with this cost reduction measure please notify treasurer Becky Moon of your intention at: athenae@bellsouth.net. Becky will keep your name on the mailing list to receive all future notices with the exception of the Bugle.

made for the Association from an old hackberry tree from the campus. Those bookends, one of only two sets made from the tree, were presented to Bill in appreciation for the work he has done on the Bugle and the Website and in anticipation of this planned transition. Bill, a former CMA Alumni Association President, has been a faithful and dedicated member of the Association. Thank you Bill for all you have done and best wishes in your "retirement".

Golf Anyone?

The 2012 Reunion will again provide an opportunity for golfers, from beginners to pros, to get together and spend some quality time in a local, renovated cow pasture chasing that elusive "perfect" game.

Alumni have enjoyed playing golf at CMA Reunions for many years and we plan to do the same in August 2012. Bill Wade, '68, and Randy Howell, '72, are pulling this event together and we will join forces on the Forrester Crossing Golf Course in Franklin, Tennessee on Friday morning of Reunion Weekend.

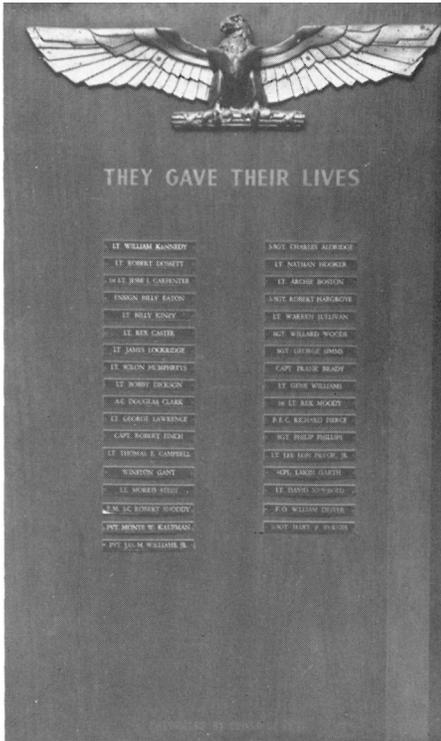

Bill, Randy, Walter Keith and Woody Pettigrew (pictured above) had a practice round on the course and believe that it will provide a great venue for the Reunion golf outing. Unfortunately, these same four alumni lost our annual challenge with the Castle Heights Alumni during their reunion in October. That puts the record at 2 - 2 for our tournament play with Castle Heights. The CMA team will prevail in October 2012 when we next play against the nemesis from Lebanon.

The golf outing for the 2010 Reunion suffered a location challenge with the Reunion being headquartered in Franklin and the golf being played in Columbia. The outing is being moved to Franklin for the 2012 Reunion to make it more convenient and to provide a new cow pasture to poke around in.

Look for more details and the golf registration form in the Spring edition of the Bugle.

Can you help locate this plaque so it can be added to the collection of artifacts on display at the CMA Museum?

The plaque shown above was made to honor the CMA cadets that made the ultimate sacrifice in World War II. This picture of the plaque was taken out of the 1960 Recall, where it was included as a tribute to those former cadets. This is one of the items that we have been trying to locate for the CMA Museum but to this point we have not had any success.

The latest information available on the plaque is that it was seen in the Peep Inn (across the train tracks from Main Building) in 1991 when the CMA Alumni Association Board of Directors was looking at Peep Inn as a potential building for the Association to use as a headquarters. At that time the plaque was in the building, along with guidons and numerous other CMA artifacts. There is no information on what happened to those items but it is possible they were transferred to Amon Evan's property for storage at some point.

This plaque honors some of CMA's finest from what many consider the Greatest Generation. If you have any information on this plaque that you believe will help lead to its recovery, please contact Woody Pettigrew at wpettigrew@knology.net or by phone at 256-653-7303.

CMA Museum Update

Original CMA Water Fountain. The picture on the left is from the 1959 Recall and shows one of the old water fountains that was located on the CMA Campus, this one being on the Quadrangle. The picture on the right was recently taken and is possibly the same water fountain after years of neglect and enduring at least one flood while in storage in the basement of Johnson Hall.

The CMA Museum has now been operational for a little over three years. A large number of alumni, former faculty, family members, and tour groups have visited the Museum since its opening during the 2008 CMA Reunion and feedback continues to be positive. The displays have withstood the test of time and the Museum continues to receive new items for display.

As highlighted in the last Bugle, work was done to the windows and gutters of the Museum by the 2011 Bullring Crew over the Summer. That work will help preserve the building as well as improve its outside appearance. Plans are being made to have a few more workdays in the Spring and Summer of 2012 to get the Museum in the best shape possible for the Reunion. The plan is to repaint the porch ceiling and the trim inside the museum, clean the cannon and caisson and the pad they are displayed on, thoroughly clean the inside of the center and wall showcases, and update displays as necessary.

Columbia Academy recently asked if the CMA Museum would be interested in having one of the old water fountains from the campus. The water fountain has been in storage in the basement of Johnson Hall for a number of years and is in need of restoration but it appears to be a worthwhile venture. The Board will determine an appropriate location to display the water fountain at its Spring meeting so the fountain can be restored (aesthetically) and displayed prior to the August Reunion.

The CMA Museum maintains a budget separate from the CMAAA General Fund. That budget is presented to the CMAAA Board at each meeting, most recently on October 8th, 2011. A summary of the budget through the year 2022 is below:

CASH ON HAND	$18,463.54
PROJECTED INCOME
Pledges Due	$15,200.00
Projected Donations	$1,795.00
Projected Sales, etc	$3,050.00
TOTAL BUDGET	$38,508.54

PROJECTED EXPENSES
Lease Payments	$13,200.00
Insurance	$2,214.00
Miscellaneous	$12,536.00
Artifact Restoration	$1,000.00
TOTAL	$28,950.00

BALANCE	$9,558.54

Access to the Museum during normal school hours is provided by visiting the Columbia Academy Administrative Office and getting a key. If you want to visit the Museum on the weekend or during school breaks please contact Woody Pettigrew at 256-653-7303 or via e-mail at wpettigrew@knology.net.

At CMA, Terry Briggs is settling in as Battalion Commander, the third Briggs to hold that position, following in the footsteps of Richard Briggs ('66) and David Briggs ('68).

Campus Happenings

As reported in the Spring 2011 Bugle, Columbia Academy is building a new Athletic Complex that will be located between the football field and Moore Hall. The groundbreaking ceremony for the development of that complex was conducted on November 4th 2011.

Columbia Academy personnel discovered another cannon ball from the original CMA Front Gate earlier this year and gave it to the CMA Museum. We now have possession of two of the cannon balls originally mounted on the front gate stone pedestals.
