RECALL

Framed!!!

Ah-Choo!

You're so silly!!

Monday morning hang-over!

Does this mean I'm a loser?

Birmingham's at it again.

Our Fondest Memories

Is it slop-er, soup-yet?

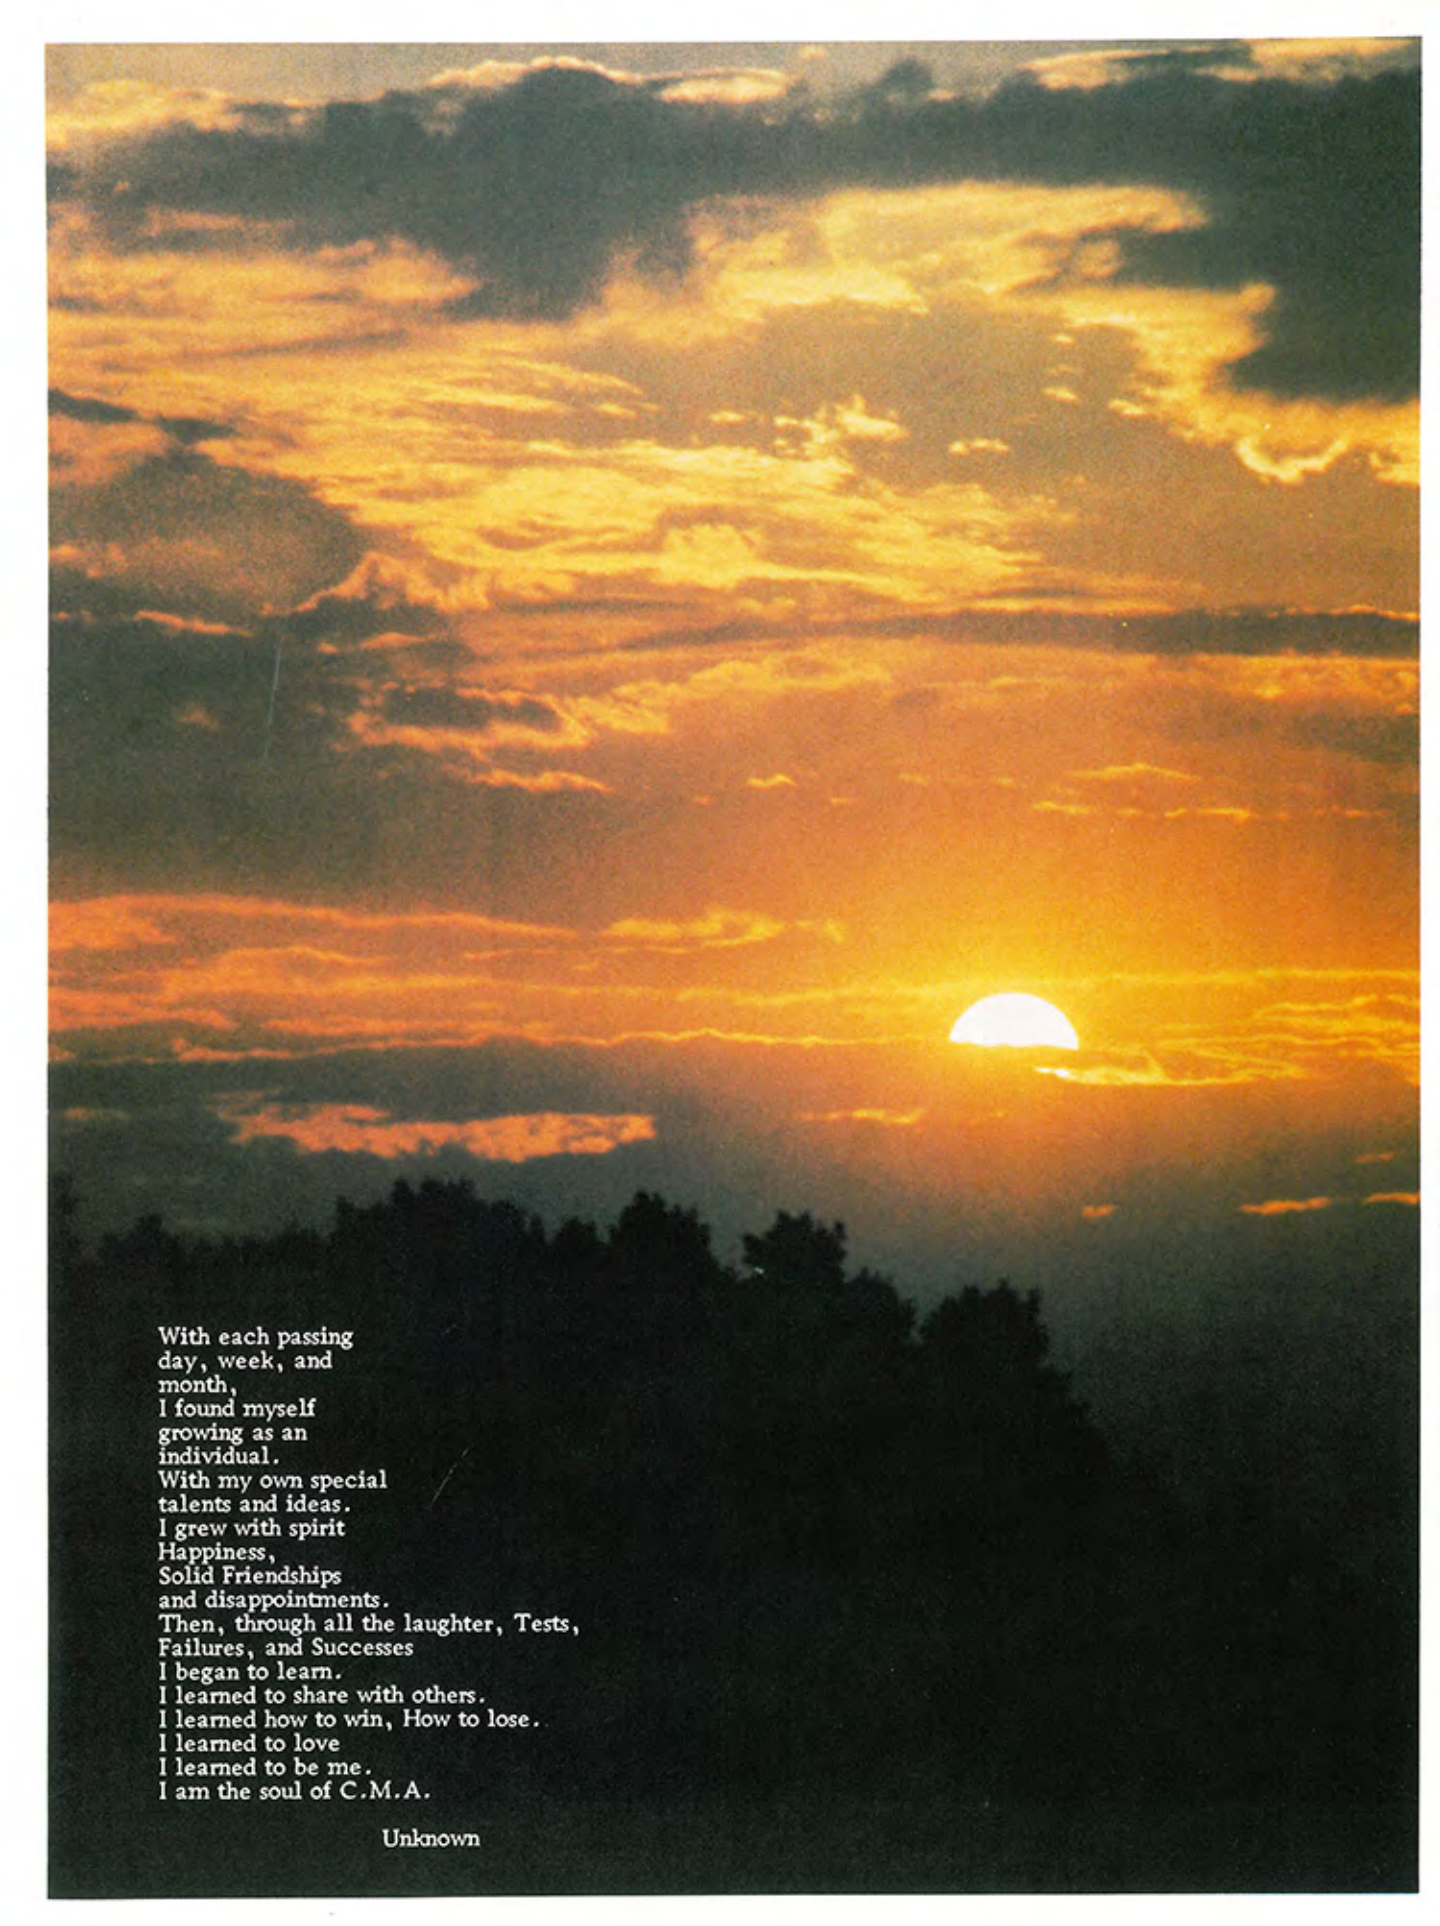

caught!

With each passing day, week, and month,
I found myself growing as an individual.
With my own special
talents and ideas.
I grew with spirit
Happiness,
Solid Friendships
and disappointments.
Then, through all the laughter, Tests,
Failures, and Successes
I began to learn.
I learned to share with others.
I learned how to win, How to lose.
I learned to love
I learned to be me.
I am the soul of C.M.A.

Would you buy a used laundry bag from this man? A famous C.M.A. Alumnus returns.

Thank God for skintight jeans

Dedication

William Graham Hann graduated from the University of the South in 1965 with a B.A. in History. He came directly to Columbia Military Academy, and was a dorm supervisor for 10 years, in Frierson, Black and Jackson dormitories and served as faculty supervisor of the "Bugle Call". He worked on the dance committee, and dedicated many hours to making the CMA RECALL a success.

He enjoys bicycling, light opera, suspense filled mystery novels, television and eating, for he is a fantastic gourmet cook!

He was born in Elizabeth, New Jersey, and attended high school in West Point, Connecticut.

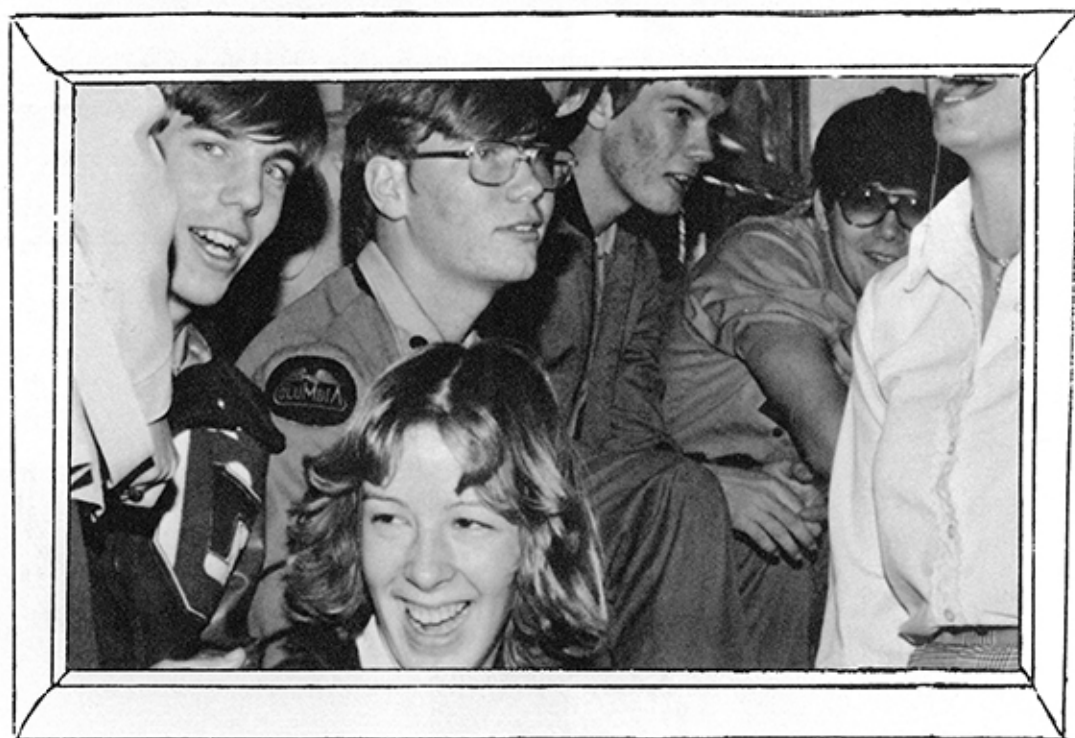

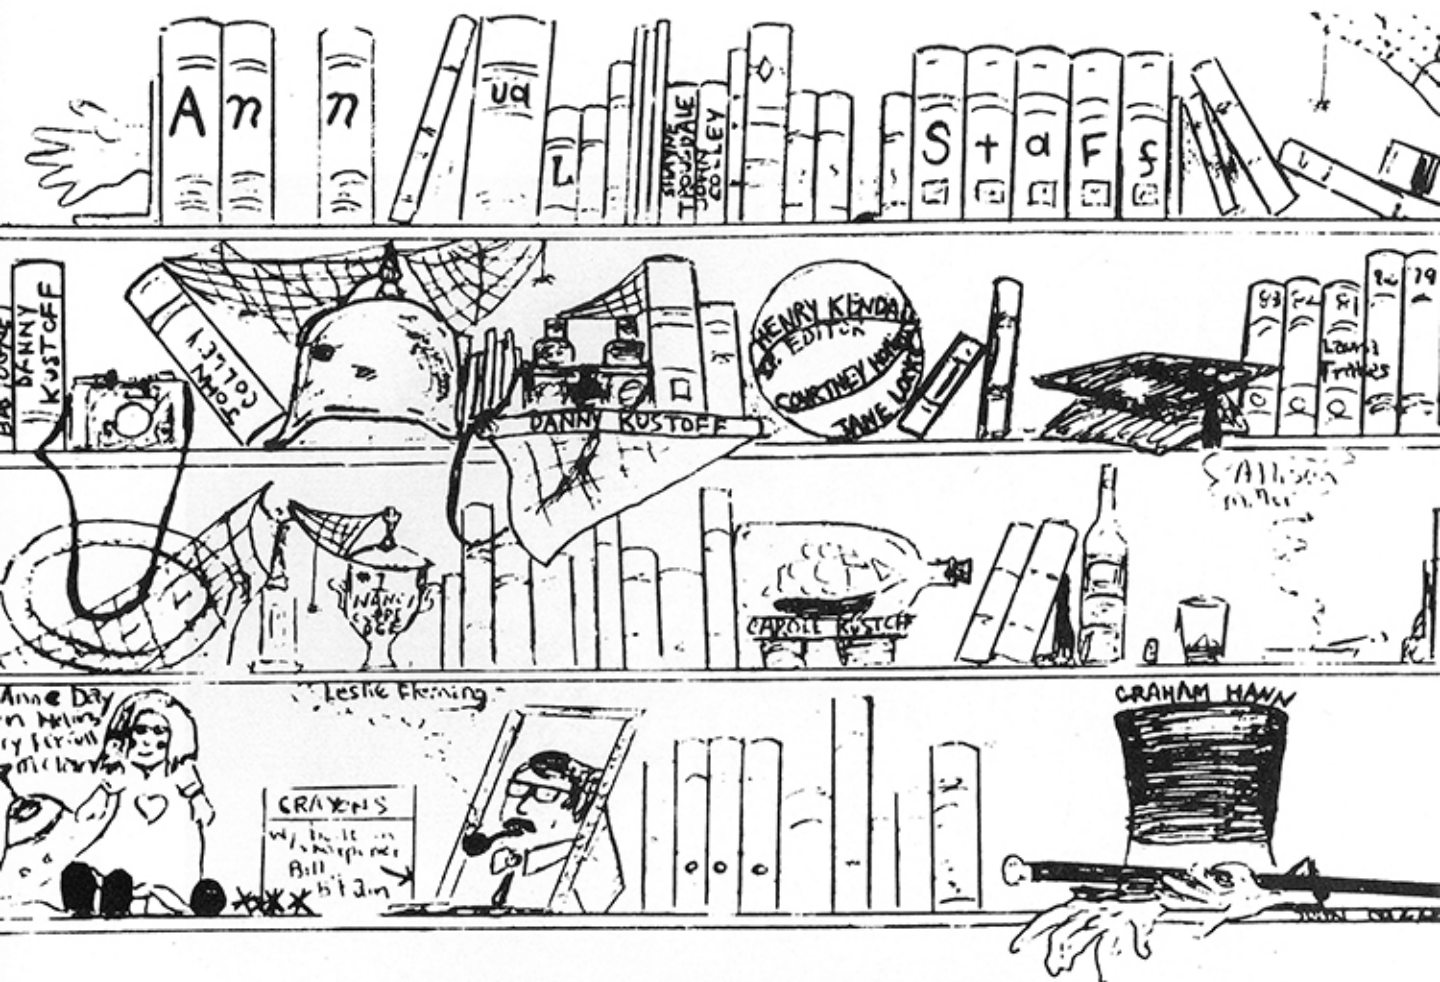

He is to be married in June to Miss Brenda Jackson of Virginia; they plan to reside in Columbia.

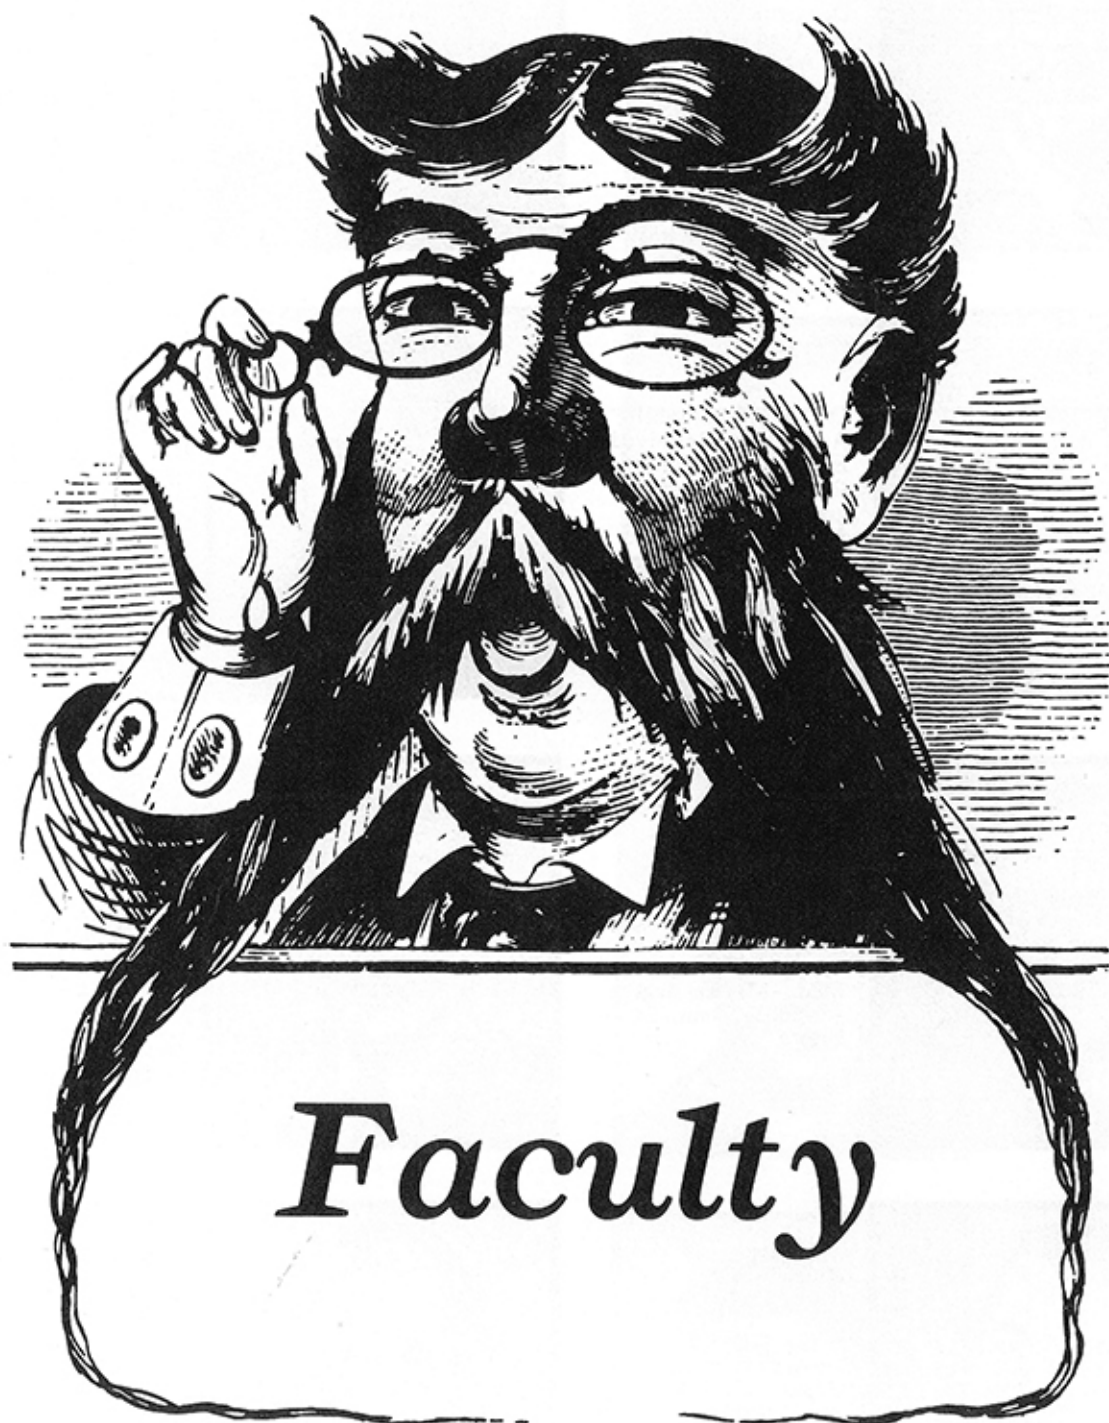

We feel it is unfortunate that it should take so long for such an honor to be bestowed on a man who deserved it so much and thus far has not received even the smallest fraction of the gratitude that he so justly deserves. Thus we dedicate the 1977-1978 RECALL to the man most worthy of the honor, William Graham Hann.

SUPERLATIVES

In 1978, the faculty of Columbia Military Academy elected Bill Birmingham to the title of "Mister C.M.A." Bill received the honor due to his excessively active school life, in addition to his other interesting extracurricular activity. Bill attended the Academy for three years, and was once named "cadet of the month." Known for his quick wits and avid ability to handle dangerous situations, Bill will be remembered as a credit. He plans to continue his education at the University of Alabama in Birmingham, and someday hopes to be President.

Each year, six outstanding cadets are chosen to represent the graduating class in the Hall of Fame. The select group is composed of the students who demonstrate qualities such as citizenship, initiative, scholarship, character, and pizzaz, and especially those who represent a contribution to Columbia Military Academy. The students inducted into the Hall of Fame for 1978 are ( from left to right ): Kevin Crabtree; Nancy Coppedge; Mr. CMA himself; John Colley; Courtney Hollins; and Vince "Waniford" Vinson.

1978 Calendar

Sept. 7 First day of school - What a female dog!

Sept. 10 Stork predicts snow for July 2. Jane plans sledding party for 18th birthday.

Sept. 16 H.K. finds out that C.M.A. does have a security system.
B.M.: "Duh! I didn't know it was in there!"

Sept. 29 P.L. gets Rocky's frog. Frog gets happy.

Sept. 30 B.B. propositions everyone except C.K.
Rocky says first word: "Duh! Football!"

Oct. 8 C.H. and J.L. "get busted"! (Oh, Hi there, Capt. Bellamy!)

Oct. 14 Eunice gets first date.

Oct. 16 J.L. shows intelligence: "We're having weather!"

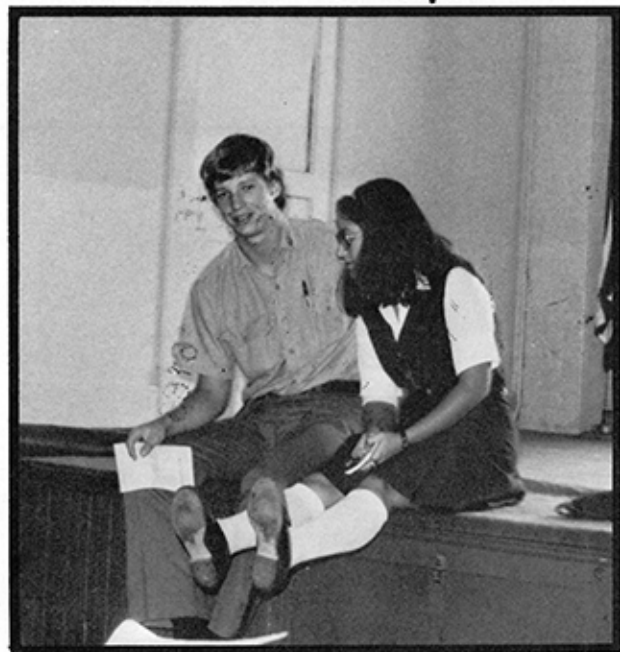

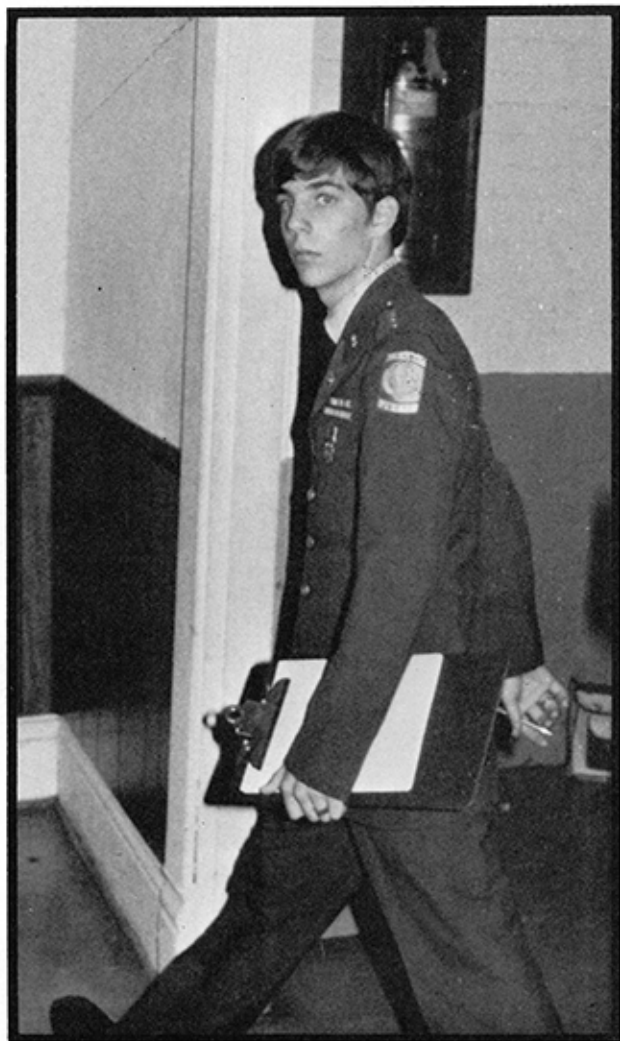

Oct. 21 Courtney suddenly acquires a mustache.
Keg party held in churchyard. E.L. loses control, blows in Pancake's ear.

Oct. 24 N.C. attacked by a vampire. Coach Howell examines necks.

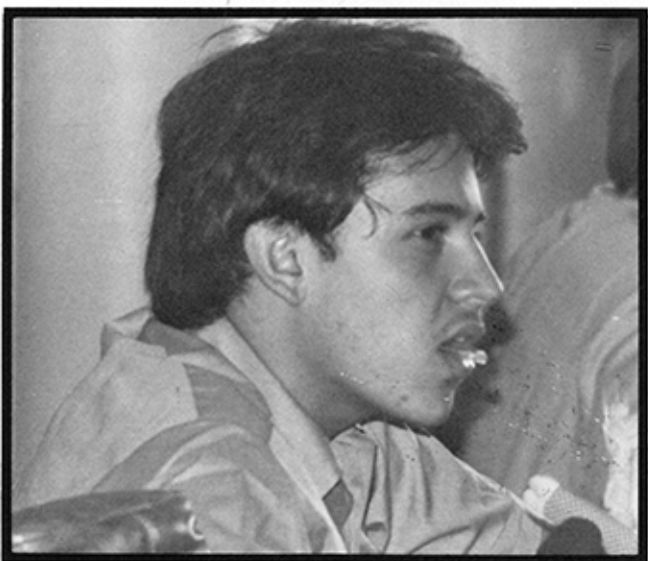

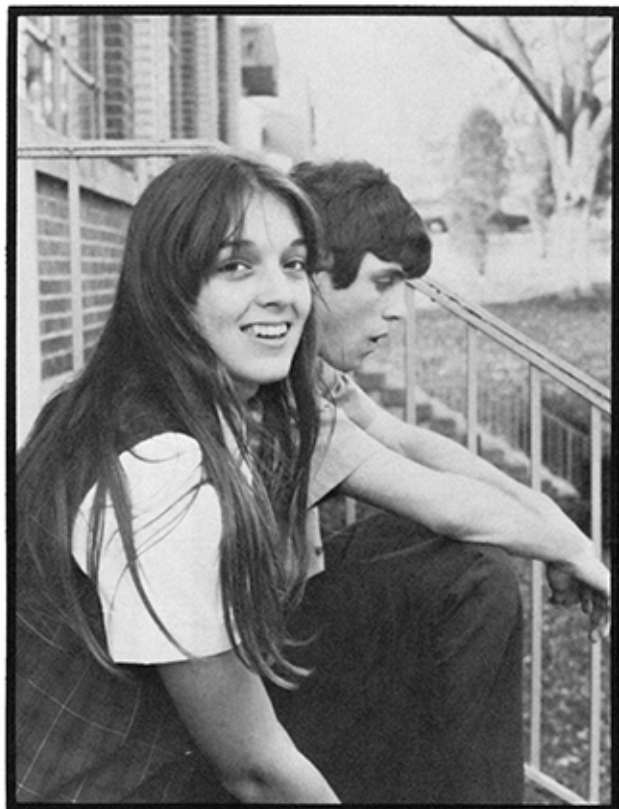

Oct. 27 Average varsity basketball practice. Slackard attacks Fish for good call; to relieve frustrations, Riley plays "kick the can" with Coach Courtney's shirt.

Oct. 28 Ricky shows Eat-on full moon.

Oct. 30 Full moon. Christy howls.
The Great Pumpkin rolls C.M.A.s; alert security guard sleeps through it all.

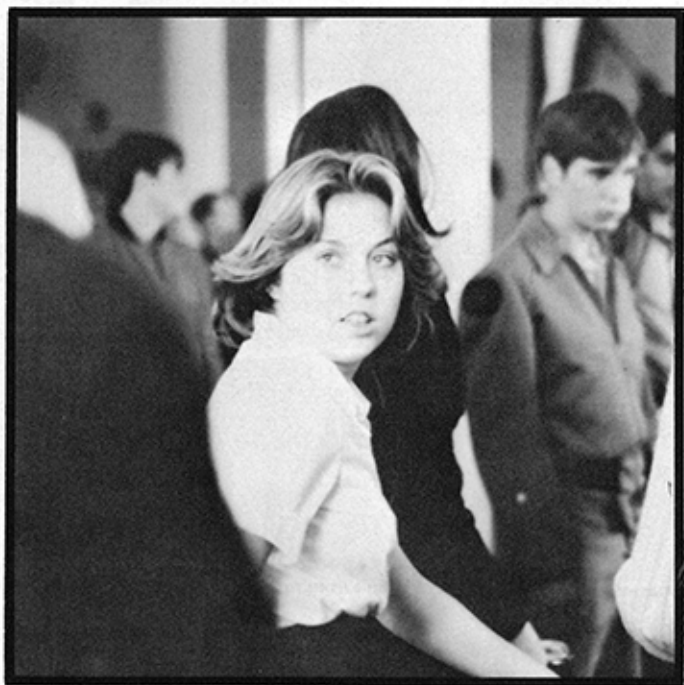

"Wild Bill" Moore, the Bullring King and notorious member of Famed Five gang.

"Horseface" Coble before whipping by "Jock the Rock" Floyd. This is before his face was mashed in during seventh round.

ORGANIZATIONS

---

The RECALL, despite the absence of interesting subjects for their professional photographers, managed to throw together a masterpiece in contemporary American Literature. With Graham Hann at the supervisory helm, the Recall sailed unmolested through stormy seas and prevailing calamities. The final product, characterized by outstanding pictures and unbelievable style in both design and copy, will serve as a monument to the capabilities and ingenuity of the RECALL staff. (As modestly judged by the Editors, anyway.)

Jr. School Members: Leigh McClain, LouAnn Day, Evelyn Hollis (Not pictured Cheri Ferrell and Gina Bastogne)

Danny Kustoff, Courtney Hollins, Nancy Coppedge, Jane Locke, Laura Frakes, Allison Miller, Bill Birmingham, Leslie Fleming, Carole Kustoff. (Not Pictured) John Colley, Shayne Trousdale

President-Courtney Hollins
Vice-President-Mike Finney

Honor Council

The Honor Council, set up and advised by Richard Courtney, is the beginning of a rich tradition of student involvement in the disciplinary measures taken against fellow students. Through the system of trial, the council decides whether or not the accused is guilty, and what punishment will prevail. Surviving much skepticism, the Honor Council has proved to be a success at CMA.

Jr. Civitan

Jr. Civitan, known throughout the United States, is a branch of the Sr. Civitans. It is an organization for the betterment of our nation, school, and community. It promotes good citizenship and moral standing through character and academic achievement. It is directed under the leadership of Richard Courtney.

Officers: Secretary-Henry Kendall; Vice-Pres.-John Colley; President-Bill Birmingham; Treasurer-Courtney Hollins

FCA

The Purpose of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes is to confront athletes and coaches with the challenge and adventure of participating in athletics by maintaining honesty and good sportsmanship. It is not an assembly of saints, but a fellowship, through which members help each other become better people and promote a spirit relevant to athletics.

Sweethearts of Key Club this year are: Karen Baldwin and Amy Sico.

Key Club

Key Club is a service organization, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Columbia, that is set up to help the community in various ways. This year they attended two Senior Citizens functions and helped the March of Dimes in their drive against birth defects.

Bugle Call

Although the first issue of the 1977-78 BUGLE CALL did not come off the presses until midway through November, this classic trend-setting collectors' edition was definitely worth waiting for. Full of interesting articles and questionable tidbits, the chronicle immediately found it's way into every student's heart first, (wastebasket second.) Headed by editor John Colley, fellows Srs. Courtney Hollins, Nancy Coppedge, Henry Kendall, Ted Nichols, and many others guided the journal into un-precedented journalistic areas.

All of the staff was out on assignments so we couldn't get a picture. Luckily, the National Honor Society filled in for us. Thanks Major Rose!

The Student Government, another idea made reality courtesy of brilliant faculty sage, Richard Courtney, played a major role in establishing the rights of the students. Headed by President John Colley and Vice-President Mike Finney, the council spent many hours behind closed doors, enveloped in heated debate over such important issues as Sr. rights and other privileges to be obtained by academic standing. Everyone is in the picture but President John Colley, which is unfair.

The fight of the century occurred on December 9th, and an unidentified ace RECALL reporter was on the scene within minutes. In the top photo, Jock "the Rock" Floyd cautiously avoids Chip "Hemmorhoids" Coble's powerful punches. The next pictures depict the furious tussle, with the most impressive flurry of blows coming from "the Rock." In the final picture (left), Jock lands what turned out to be the deciding shot: a tremendous right roundhouse which shocked "Hemmorhoids" into submission.

Last Will and Testament

I, Vince Vinson, hereby leave my rank to whoever can withstand the mental discipline and the emotional breakdown which will occur after their first mistake. I also leave Jennifer and Ellen (Homer) my impression of a car.

I, John R. Matthews, being of unsound mind and body, leave Elmer Dunkman all my experience of sleeping in class. To Patty Lay I leave the pleasures of being with Rocky's frog. To Major Hann I leave a case of Bubble gum to be chewed in private.

I, Joe Deberry, being of sound mind and body a a Senior finally, leave to John Neal and Ricky Ward all my trouble with women and parties.

I, LeRoy Epps Jones, being of sound mind and finally a senior, leave to Coach Nelson, HOW TO PLAY SOCCER IN ONE DAY.

I, Mark Brown, being of sound mind and a senior finally, leave to Sgt. Creek my GOOBERS. I would like to leave the ability to bring a KEG on campus without getting caught to Mark Fly. If anyone wants my ability to cheat they can have it. To Charles Webster I leave 2 inches. (of height) Raise Hell!

I, Lady Jackson, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Amy Sisco my faithful tube of peach lip gloss, my old car Chitty Bang Bang, and a map of the park for next year. To Lee Ann, Daye, Lissa, and Nancy (the fearless foursome), I leave an authentic comb used by Farrah Fawcett!

I, Elizabeth Greer, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Elizabeth Kennedy an authorized paper wad to throw at Jock Floyd.

I, Lisa Louise Pigg, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Charles Webster the responsibility of bringing grape bubble gum to Coach Barrom's class.

I, Shayne Trousdale, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Carole Kustoff my position as editor of the RECELL so she can become totally insane, as it made me.

I, Christy Herrmann, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to the Sr. School all my school spirit and dedication which I brought when I came here.

I, Bill Birmingham, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Carole Kustoff my English IV Literature book and ownership of GEORGE only if she will keep the tradition of passing it down to the next coming senior class. I leave to Mark Tribble my flirting ability hoping one day he'll get a girl friend that will give him everything he wants*?!?! I leave to Roy Hughes all my analyses that I made F's on so he won't have to go through the trouble of making them himself. I leave to the Senior Class of 1979 that they may one day walk up the halls of Columbia MILITARY Academy and say they had as many laughs and tears of happiness as I did. - Good Bye-

I, Allison Miller, being of sound mind and body and a senior finally, leave to Leslie Fleming and Paige McClain the offices of president and associate of the sex revolution. To John R. Neal I leave my facetious behavior to Debbie Eaton I leave my partying ability, which she doesn't really need. Have fun!

I, Duck Williams, being of sound mind and body and a Senior finally, leave to Ricky Ward my brains and looks so he may have a fine year in 1979.

I, Jennifer Jones, being of sound mind and body and a Senior finally, leave to Elizabeth Kennedy my ability to bug Mrs. Hart, in hope that she will carry on the tradition; and 18 inches off of my bust.

I, Cheryl Flatt, leave to Mike Finney my blue eyes, a strand of my blond hair, and a brand new wooden screw (but I don't know where I'll get a NEW one!)

I, Robert Brindley, leave to Rob Courtney my genius mine. (sic)

I, Henry Kendall, leave to the members of the Famed Five a year's use of the Waco School House. Individually, I leave: Jimmy Rippey - The know-how of being a moocher. Buddy Finney - A bag of buffalo chips, since he is a real buffalo. Win Halliday - All my empty 151 bottles so he can set them afire. And last and most certainly least, Mark Fly - I leave Mark nothing because he deserves nothing. He's too much of a slackard!

I, Nita Courtney Hollins, leave to Paige McClain my nickname "Stork." This I deem necessary to the success of her basketball career since any pretext of height on her part is merely an illusion. To Patty Lay, a free ride on the "Rinkidink" with my regards to Sgt. Sutton.

I, William F. White, leave to Coaches Jarrett, Arnold, and last but not least Courtney, one of my beautiful blondes for their total enjoyment.

I, Ted Nichols, being of sound body and insane mind, leave to Terry Johnston all my charm, to Jack Floyd, my good looks, and Drake Colley, my greatest asset, modesty. I leave to Sgts. Sutton and creek. The thought that one day, maybe, I'll be their boss. I leave to the class of '79 a great year next year - like this year has been for me.

I, John Colley, leave to Frank Piperno 7,000,000 dollars in gratitude for his great help in getting into college; to "Coach" Riley, THE JOY OF SEX and EVEN YOU CAN COACH BASKETBALL. And to Vince, I leave a gas mask in case Frankenstein tries to take off his shirt again to show he's not impotent.

I, Ben Molina, being of sound mind and body and a Senior finally, leave a hope to the soccer coaches (Marchetti and Arnold) that someday I'll teach them how to really coach soccer. And also I promise to leave a truck full of beer so they will be able to party the whole summer.

Valedictorian — Courtney Hollins

Courtney Hollins, valedictorian for the Class of 1978, hails from Mount Pleasant, Tennessee. Courtney, known to friend and foe alike as "Stork," was also elected to the CMA Hall of Fame, along with five other people. Although she could seldom be found with her nose to the grindstone, Courtney always managed to score highest and escape with all the laurels. For the first time in many years, the honor of being valedictorian was not bestowed upon a wimpy over-studying worm, but instead upon a well-rounded intellectual in her own right. We tip our hats to Courtney Hollins, one girl who actually deserves the honor.

Salutatorian — Jane Locke

Unbelievably, the Salutatorian of the Class of 1978, Jane Locke, also lives in Mount Pleasant. Miss Locke, known ambiguously as "Jane" throughout middle Tennessee, has attended CMA since time immemorial (roughly, the sixth grade) and has nearly always been at the head of her class in something or other. A Spanish scholar and mathematical wizard, Jane served her time her senior year submerged in Business Math and Accounting, while at the same time fulfilling her undeniable emotion to roam by attending CSCC part-time. What a woman!

Can we take it? The third successive resident of Mount Pleasant was tabbed to receive the third-place ribbon: Lady Jackson. Yes, females now dominate the free world, and Lady dominated anything she became involved in: Homecoming Queen, Memorial Bowl Queen; yes, in all walks of life Lady reigned supreme. It is fortunate the academic system now employed evolved with a sense of humor so Lady's hidden talents could be enjoyed to their fullest.

On to number six, Nancy "House" Coppedge. We'll never forget the senior play when Nancy played Lady Godiva - over seventy boys volunteered to play the part of her Steed, but they all wanted to put the cart before the horse. Certainly, Nancy would have ranked higher than sixth in her class if it weren't for unpredictable incorrigibles - like the bicentennial last year.

Finally, someone not from Mount Pleasant, our fourth scholar, John Colley. A first-class student and ace netter, President Carter speaks warmly of John when he says "Why not the best?" Outspoken but nearly always right, John would argue with God if he'd stand still long enough. He has a warm place in his heart for CMA: right between Mount Pleasant and the University of Tennessee Vols. All this proves the popular adage "John is to CMA what Nero was to Rome."

Kevin Crabtree, famous as "Rooster fries" everywhere, follows Nancy on the road to academic fame and fortune. Known for his hilarious run-ins with our pals in the military department (including his now-famous haircut skit), Kevin brought a sparkle and a laugh to every drill session as we all wondered where in the devil he was. Kevin also played the star in sports, unselfishly feeling free to shoot whenever he wanted to.

Speaking of Rome, the fifth highest average belongs to Ellen Dunnebacke of Columbia. For a while, Ellen had a well-paying job in Columbia: selling drugs. She worked in a drug store and reportedly brought the drug store ten times the amount of their usual business, and these visitors were just her relatives! This example points out Ellen's animal magnetism which draws interesting people to her from all corners of the earth, mainly Alabama.

Would the "Top Eight" be complete without Epps Jones? Probably, but too late now. Epps was voted to be "Most Likely To Follow Evil Kneivel's Next Stunt". During his senior year he broke the wind barrier by blowing in a famed junior's ear during one noted debaucherie. All of this while he was driving, too, which shows Epps' unusual knack for driving like a blind idiot. Altho Epps has been flying around for several years, he eventually plans to take lessons or something.
